As at 7pm last night, 79 companies had reported their full-year results ended June 30, 2007, with 73 in the black and six in the red. They recorded combined profits of $2.38 billion, up 29.1 per cent from the $1.84 billion they made previously.

SOLID YEAR:
The buoyant property market helped developer Wing Tai nearly treble gains, with The Riverine by the Park among the sold-out projects. Commodities trader Olam, which won the bidding war for Queensland Cotton in June, had the highest turnover of $5.46 billion.
